

Kenneth D. Robinson

Ken serves as President and CEO for Dr. Phillips, Inc. and The Dr. P. Phillips Foundation. In his role, Ken oversees the Dr. Phillips real estate operations that involve over 55 properties with approximately 113 tenants, an extensive disciplined investment portfolio and one of Central Florida's largest grant making operations. In 2019, Dr. Phillips gifting will exceed $200,000,000.

Currently, Dr. Phillips is embarking on a major undertaking in the construction of a 202-acre public/private project called The Packing District. In addition, Dr. Phillips has recently completed a 186-unit state-of-the-art senior housing community and a 60,000 sq. ft. medical office building in the Dr. Phillips community of Orlando, Florida.

Ken remains committed to his Central Florida roots through his support and involvement in many non-profit organizations as President of the Committee of 100 of Orange County, Inc., member of the Central Florida YMCA Metro Board, Director & Executive Committee member of the Florida Citrus Bowl and will serve as President for the 2019-2020 Season, Director & Executive Committee member for the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts as well as Co-Chair of the Dr. Phillips Center Phase II Construction Committee, past President of the University Club of Orlando and recently was selected to serve on the Presidential Search Committee for UCF. He also remains loyal to his alma mater, Florida State University and the College of Business. His goal is to continue to uphold the values, legacy and Donor Intent of the Phillips Family.
